Immigration Law Intensive
For Legal Practitioners

This course is for legal practitioners who want to extend their professional practice to include migration advice and litigation. This is an intensive four-day course will comprehensively introduce participants to migration law. You will be working with accredited specialists and have the opportunity to interact with each other as you work on hypothetical cases in a simulated practice environment. The participants will be able to claim CPD points for MARA and CLE points. You will receive extensive notes and it is intended at the end the completion of the course you will have achieved the following learning outcomes:

- Comprehensive understanding of the current legislative and policy framework for migration advice
- Ability to identify appropriate visa classes and respective requirements for clients
- Ability to identify requirements and prepare documents relating to refusals, compliance, appeals and reviews in the migration context
- Ability to provide current, effective and lawful advice to client
- Understanding of the Code of Conduct and other practical procedural issues for migration agents.

2008 DATES

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Location</th>
<th>Venue</th>
<th>Session times</th>
<th>Session program</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 24th -27th June | Melbourne | Sir Zelman Cowen Centre Room 2.10 295 Queen Street Melbourne | 8.45-4.30 Lunch and light refreshments Available | Citizenship
MARA
Application Procedures
General Skilled
Employment, Students
Family
Business Skills
Refugees
RRV & Miscellaneous Visas
Bridging Visas
DIAC Compliance Issues
Compliance Visas
Visa Cancellations and Exclusions
Merits and Judicial Review
Practical Migration Issues |

Contact: Hannah Fielding
Australian Immigration Law - Sir Zelman Cowen Centre - Victoria University
Hannah.Fielding@vu.edu.au  F +61 3 9919 1817  T +61 3 9919 1818 WWW.VU.EDU.AU/SZCC